RE: Read Land High School Indoor Show – Judges Room Donations

To Whom It May Concern:

Red Land High School will host its annual KIDA Indoor Competition on Saturday, March 24, 2012. There will be 30-40 groups from area high schools competing in percussion, majorettes and color guard – approximately 400 – 600 spectators. A large part of the success of this show is determined by the judges. Throughout the day, the judges for the event have use of a judge's room. They will be provided a place to work and refreshments for the day. There will be anywhere from 10 – 15 judges that will make use of the room. We are seeking donations to help with the cost of providing this service.

If you would like to contribute a donation to help offset this cost, please complete the form below with a check payable to RLMB. A sign displaying the names of donors will be displayed in the judge's room. This may be sent to the above address – attention Jim Herman by March 16, 2012.

Thank you
